

From Pastor Edwards

Good day Believers!

As we prepare to enjoy this festive season, I want to challenge you to not crowd out Christ.

The Bible declares "She laid him in a manger because there was NO ROOM for them in the inn"- (SAINT LUKE 2:7)

Those 2 words became the theme of his life on earth.

NO ROOM...thus Jesus said "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head"

A world that says there is no room for Jesus is saying that they no longer need His law, his love, or His help.

Some have no room for Him in their lives because things are going quite well and they don't need the extra baggage of Christ and His church.

Others don't have room for his way of doing things because they don't fit into their way of doing things. They don't have room on the throne of their heart because they want to sit there themselves. They certainly don't have room for Jesus to tell them to deny themselves, follow him and to give to others.

If Jesus came today, there is no doubt that there are those who would have no room for him.

Child of God, you are the innkeeper of your heart. Is there room for Jesus in your crowded schedule? How will you make room for Him, time for Him – with your hectic and hurried life? Don't turn to your neighbor – I am writing this to you. LOL.

You see, the Innkeeper missed the chance to say "Jesus was born here". You have the chance today to say "Jesus lives here". He lives in my heart, home, and my happiness!

And thus the question: Have YOU any room for Jesus? I do.

*On the Spirit of this season,
Pas*
